In the Know Team to Compete Agai

This year's appearance of Mount Vernon's "In the Know" team marked the second time that they were invited to participate in the competition

They played against Bexley in September, they lost, but were invited to come back and compete against Teays Valley in January. The show was viewed in June.

Two different panels were chosen to represent the school. In September; Leslie Knerr, Darren Ayers, Ann Cudd, and Kevin Sparks participated with Kim Tomes as the alternate. In January Steve George, Ann Cudd, Leslie Knerr, and Darren Ayers were chosen with alternates Geoff Banning and Kevin Sparks.

Members are voted on by students who have practiced with them. Among these students are John Bizios, Kevin Sparks, Leslie Knerr, Ann Cudd, Geoff Banning, Darren Ayers, Bill Smythe, Kathy Rinnert, and Steve George.

Advisors for the team were Mrs. Rita Ball and Mr. Bill Achberger.

All School Play Presents Dramatic Effect

This year's all school play, directed by Mr. Roger Robertson, was the drama, "Up the Down Staircase," which was written by Bel Kauffman

The story took place in a large metropolitan high school in New York City, where Miss Sylvia Barrett is beginning her first job as a teacher

Some of the cast for this year's play included: Eric Kofod as Dr. Maxwell Clark, Julie Elliott as Sylvia Barrett, Kristi Morris as Beatrice Schnatcher, Lee King as Paul Barringer, Paul Cline as J. J. McHabe, Melanie McMillan as Alice Blake and Tom Kading as Joe Ferone.

Production crew included: Teri Brannum, prompter; Jim Cockrell, scenery; Jeanne Winter, props; Judi Arnholt, make-up, Debbie Lynch, costumes; Dave Olmstead, lighting and sound; Mark Crippen, stage crew; Susan Perkins, publicity; Vicki Clinker, business; and program cover by Darren Ayers. Music directors were Darren Ayers and Tim Prichard, with Rhonda Reagh as student director for the play.

Performance dates for the play were December 6 and 7

McHabe (Paul Cline) brings a student in for correction. 5. Two cast members work on the scenery. 6. Teri Brannum recites her lines

Organizations . . .

. . . kept us busy with planning, carrying out, and cleaning up after club functions. School spirit and pride was displayed through the entire student body. Much of our spare time was used constructively to further the interests of the school. All of the times, both good and bad will ever be kept in our 'photographs and memories.'

Music Department Performs in an Outstanding Year

The Music department with its varied aspects, gives students the opportunity to learn, develope, and demonstrate their musical ability.

The all brass marching band under the direction of Robert Bechtal performed for half time entertainment at all the football games. Marching band takes much physical co-ordination, combined with a great deal of mental co-ordination. Students, while playing memorized music, must know when to step, where to step, and how to step. And all band members know the proper way to march is with knees high and toes pointed!

The concert band, also under the direction of Robert Bechtal, starts practices right after football season. This is in preparation for the four public concerts they give, in which they play a variety of music from rock to Bach.

Orchestra, under the direction of Mr. Carney, though quite busy with fund raising projects, still had time to 'fiddle' around. The orchestra performed for three student programs, including the annual Thanksgiving assembly. They were involved in an exchange concert, where they had the opportunity to perform for another high school. They also participated in the regional orchestra concert.

Mellow Jackets, a very time consuming part of the music department, is the stage jazz band, directed by Bob Bechtal. The dance band, with only three members returning form last year, had to work extra hard for a successful year. Mellow Jackets perform annually for the Tops and Pops Concert, and for various dances and receptions.

Choir Promotes School Music

This year's choir's objective was to make music a more popular part of the high school curriculum. To do this the choir performed for the student body many times. They took part in the Thanksgiving Concert with orchestra. They also performed carols throughout the halls at Christmas, in the Spring Concert, Tops-N-Pops, and in Graduation ceremony.

The choir also performed in the choir exchange at the Nazarene College, and for various other groups.

They held their annual holly sale and magazine sale.

The people who held offices this year were President, Rhonda Reagh; Vice-President, Kelly Jacquet; and Secretary-Treasurer, Judi Arnholt.

Ski Club Takes to the Slopes

This year's ski club, besides being involved in skiing at the Clearfork Ski Resort, participated in many activities to earn money.

One of their money-making projects included selling raffle tickets on pizzas at the basketball games. They also sponsored a dance for the student body at the Armory. With the money they earned the club hoped to help finance members' way on a big trip to Canada or Michigan.

Ski Club also went skiing each week, weather permitting, at the nearby slopes. Many new members took lessons and the "old pros" were along to show off their already acquired skills.

This year's officers were: Cindy Moore, president; Beth McCulloh, vice-president; and Chuck Payne, secretary-treasurer.

STUCO Communicates

This year the main purpose of the Student Council was to establish a student government and increase communications among the students. Another purpose was to increase enthusiasm and de among the students for a better school environment.

The Student Council, in hopes of achieving this, sponsored many activities that students could rticipate in. They sponsored the Homecoming Dance and also the Spring Dance. This year the ly Teacher Contest was replaced by the Sexy Legs Contest, won by Mr. Cornprobst, in an effort raise money for the United Community Fund. The traditional Carnation Day was again held by dent Council.

The Student Council helped to ease student problems by taking them to the authority who may able to help and by setting up committees to explore the problem.

The officers this year were President, Katie Lord; Vice-President, Barry Steinmetz; Secretary, nonda Reagh; Treasurer, Leslie Knerr.

Forum Staff Preserves Memories

A hard working, dedicated group — The 1975 Forum Staff — completed work in the annual project of a 'successful' yearbook. Selling ads, perfecting layouts, creating interesting photographs, the hard working staff met deadline upon deadline with great enthusiasm. Under the 'skilled' guidance of their new advisor, Mr. Bill Jenkins and with the help of co-editors Becky Bowers and Judi Arnholt, business editor, Beth Todd; advertising editor, David Olmstead; and index editor, Julie Elson along with the rest of the staff the yearbook has proved to be an 'interesting' accomplishment.

Jacket Journal Cover School News

This year 13 students participated in putting out the high school newspaper, The Jacket Journa. The Mt. Vernon News co-operated with the staff by donating a page a week on Tuesday for th Jacket Journal.

Articles in the JJ included surveys, a featured student of the week, Jacket Jive, editorials, bee liners, and pictures, all centered around school curriculum.

Those on the staff included Sue Perkins and Lori Hawkins, co-editors; Greg Luli, club edito Mark Betcher, cartoonist; Teresa Rousseau, Mike Brinning, Cathy Curry, Connie Hiles, Deb Hull and Leesa Weissman, reporters; Bill Larder, Susie Simmons, and Jeff Fladen, photographers; an Mrs. Pat Sanko, staff advisor.

The spelunkers in their crazy get-up

Spelunkers Make Two Expeditions

This year there were two spelunking expeditions which Mt. Vernon High students participated in. The spelunkers, cave explorers, made trips to Renfro Valley in Kentucky.

Friday night was spent setting up camp, and then the spelunkers spent seven hours in the caves on Saturday. The caves offered such things as the Pit, Dome, and Bathtub to explore. The Pit and Dome are connected by a slim opening through which the spelunkers must "belly crawl." The Bathtub is a place with water up to the cavers waists. A "really tough" thing to see in the caves, according to Leslie Knerr, is where a ray of sunlight appears to be coming down from above.

Mr. Houston and Mr. Wagner accompanied the spelunkers on their trip and made sure they got some "home cookin'." Miss Gregg also went on the first trip.

1975 Forum Show . . .

. . . as always was a big success. It was held on the 6, 7, and 8 of March, in the high school theater, with a Variety of acts highlighting the show. Queen Kristi Morris and her attendants reigned over the production. Kristi was escorted by Ron Brown. The attendants were Seniors: Cathy Curry and Greg Banbary, Nancy Walker and Rich Dustin, Jane Omlor and Barry Jacobs, Kathy Spearman and Mike Mossholder, and Juniors: Teri Hoffman and Jeff Castle, Janet Connell and Delon Dove, Kelly Jacquet and Doug Mill, Ann Curry and John Graves. It was directed by Roger Robertson and the stage set was designed by Bill Jenkins. The show's theme was of course "photographs and memories."

1975 Teacher of the Year

Paul Pfeiffer was selected as the 1975 Teacher of the Year. He was chosen on the basis of his ability to understand and relate to his students. He presents an interesting and worthwhile class.

Mr. Pfeiffer has taught for five years at Mount Vernon Senior High School and previously taught for three years at Highland High School. He has been advisor to the Junior class and advisor for chess club.

He attended Jewett High School and took his teaching degree at Ohio State University. Then he was in the United States Marine Corps and he achieved the rank of Captain.

Mr. Pfeiffer resides with his wife and daughter in Mount Vernon.

Sports . . .

. . . gave all of the students at Mt. Vernon Senior High a way of releasing tensions, whether it was participating, managing, or watching. Sportsmanship showed through both the wins and losses of the various events, and we're sure that just to have done our best is sufficient reason for the various programs. Each event will always remain stored in our 'photographs and memories.'

"We played very well at times against outstanding teams," stated Head Coach Dale Dickson on the 1974 Yellow Jacket Football team.

Dickson felt the best game for the Jackets was the 7-6 victory over Westerville. Vic Lindsey's 85 yd. kick off return and Doug Miller's extra point sparked the win; even though the Jackets were outplayed.

Another big win for the Yellow Jackets was a fourth quarter rampage over Groveport, which was considered an upset. The final score was 24-7.

Coach Dickson recognized several players for their outstanding performances including Mike Daily, Jeff Selby, Delon Dove, Mike Curry, Leo Armstrong, and Vic Lindsey.

"The team played well, but the true ability of the team never surfaced. The team's record didn't let some of the outstanding players show through, because they don't talk about the outstanding players when you lose," remarked Jeff Selby, Sr.

Reserves, Frosh Gain Experience

Both the Reserve and Freshman squads gained valuable experience, which is essential in the molding of a team with varsity potential.

Neither teams posted outstanding records, but with time and team effort these boys will eventually mold into athletes with the spirit to win!

Wrestling Interest Grows

Greater interest in wrestling this year resulted in larger participation, not only in more team participants, but also in the number of those attending the matches.

Co-captains of this year's varsity team were seniors Mike Lybarger, Ray Piar, Lee Simon, and Jeff Selby.

Senior Lee Simon placed first in the Ohio Capital Conference League Tournament. Other Mt. Vernon wrestlers who placed were; senior Mike Lybarger — second; senior Jeff Selby — fourth; junior Mike Curry — fifth; senior Jerry Campbell — fifth; junior Bill Piar — fifth; senior Ray Piar — fifth; junior John McBride — sixth; sophomore Steve Olsen — sixth. Overall team placement for Mt. Vernon matmen was fifth out of ten conference teams.

Varsity Hangs in There . . .

This year's Yellow Jacket basketball team only won two games; Delaware and Hilliard. Of course, there were no returning lettermen. If there were anything that could be said about the players it is only that the returning boys will have much more experience to help improve the '76 record.

Two Sophomores were indefinitely moved to varsity positions after the first few games. The games usually stayed rather close in the first half of the contests, but then the other team seemed to pour on the steam.

Support for the team was much less than appreciative, moreover, the students didn't seem to care. Maybe instead of saying "it's the score and who wins" it should be remembered that the guys kept trying and always wanted to win.

Coach John Wanger's reserves ended with a flare; they won their last two of four games, but besides those they produced only two other wins.

This team was composed with all soph's — a very unusual thing to happen.

Bill Wattland led the reserves with 102 pts., Phil Herald followed with 78 pts. Jim Wolfe led in the rebounding column.

The Freshman team was the winningest team. Coach Del Cornwell's Honeybees were 8-7 for the season. This group might be able to provide the talent needed to produce a winning season.

Cross Country Goes Co-ed

This year's Cross Country team consisted of twenty-five members including many eager underclassmen and "seasoned veterans." A summer running program initiated by Coach Nick Houston kept the team practicing throughout the summer. Seniors Jeff Konkler and Larry Williams were co-captains. For the first time girls were permitted to run in the cross-country meets.

Senior Mark Betcher was voted "most improved runner" and senior Larry Williams received the "most valuable runner" award.

In the Reynoldsberg Invitational, individual winners from Mt. Vernon were: freshmen Skipper Spears and Brian Cassell, sophomores Don Schnelby, Kelly Hill and Chris Widrig. During the Worthington relays Skipper Spears was fourteenth out of sixty runners in the freshman event.

The Girl's Athletic Association this year proved to be much more organized and provided the OCC with more competition than ever before.

Under the direction of Miss McConnell, both the Varsity and Reserves improved over last year's team. Although the Reserves had a record of 7-3 and the Varsity record was 4-6, each team worked hard and strived to use their skills to the best advantage (including Roo's tripping!).

Volleyball Team Gains Experience

This year's volleyball team gained valuable experience which should improve next year's record. he team consisted of girls who provided the school with a truly representative outlook on girl's orts.

Golfers Swing Into Fall

This year's golf team faced something a bit different than previous teams. They played during the fall season instead of the regular spring competition. The players were able to survive the weather.

The team competed all of their matches at Hiawatha and Apple Valley courses. Their season record was finished with a second place in the OCC standings.

Most of the girls practice compulsories, which will be used in competion next year.

These girls can be considered the most lively in the school.

Amy Graham practices her routine on the balance beam.

Seniors Pull Away, 36-28

This year's annual Powderpuff football game featured the Senior Studdettes outlasting the Junior Jammers.

The Senior girls won the game, 36 to 28, after holding the Junior girls scoreless in the second half. Excellent running by Deb Fawcett, Kathy Rinnert, Brenda Peairs and Becky Schaub provided the points for Seniors. Key interceptions by Julie Elliott and Mary Brouillette stopped important drives for the Juniors. Scoring for the Juniors was provided by Amy Graham and Jaynie Campbell.

Coaches for the Seniors were Bill Achberger and Noah Hinton; Junior coaches were John Wagner and John Cleland.

Money obtained from the game goes for financing the Girl's Athletic Association for the year.

Seniors . . .

. . . discovered that although it was a relief to be in the final year of high school, decisions concerning plans for the future posed new problems. Whether work, marriage, furthering education or any other plans, each involved much thought. Juniors . . .

. . . enjoy life at Mount Vernon High. Things become more routine every day and discoveries are found everywhere. We are more at ease with ourselves and with our studies. Juniors Prepare for Senior Year

This year's Junior Class officers are: President — Ray Thibaut, Vice President — Jeff Cassel, Secretary — Terri Hoffman, Treasurer — Barb Houston.-Class advisors are: Mrs. Roeder, Mr. Pifer, and Miss Gregg. This year the Junior Class sold Tootsie-Roll Banks, and made approximately seven-hundred dollars in their venture, which will be used for their senior expenses, such as the Prom, Graduation, and their class gift.

1. Junior Officers: Ray Thibaut, President, Jeff Cassell, Vice-President, Terri Hoffman, Secretary, Barb Houston, Treasurer. 2. Spelunkers are oblivious to their fellow friends shredding an extra shirt. 3. Teacher Miss Gregg mistakes her tent for a cave. 4. John Wagner and students relax after a hard day's crawl.

Sophomores . . .

. . . at last have discovered that school is a place of learning, not a place to be fearful of. Friends are helpful in almost all areas even those that are not so much fun. We begin to feel that not everyone is out to get us and that teachers really do want to help us learn. In fact our new discoveries will always remain in our 'photographs and memories.'

Faculty . . .

. . . helped everyone with almost anything. They put up with our constant noise in the lunch room, our questions and our quiet moments. They taught us many things and gave us many new experiences. All in all, they will always hold a large place in our 'photographs and memories.'

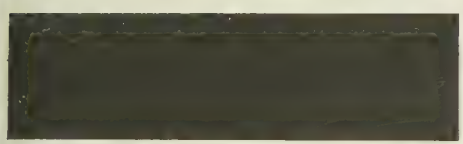
Science Club Builds Career Interest

Careers in science fields are being emphasized by the science department this year. A "Science Career Month" was established, with speakers from different fields visiting. Besides making science careers seem interesting, the teachers have volunteer lab assistants, who are interested in these careers helping in class. Another accomplishment made by this department was to make the weather station operable with the money received from a grant last year.



1. Mr. Helser leaves with a load of homework. 2. As one student works, another naps in an Earth Science class. 3. Mrs. Wiester prepares to show a film to her Chemistry class. 4. Seniors enjoy one of Mr. Achberger's Physics lectures. 5. Mr. Helser tries to explain his ideas to Mr. Houston. It's amazing what you learn in Mr. Achberger's Physics class.

Math Department Makes Changes

This year the math department has made a few changes, and there is one new teacher Mrs. Michele Lane has taken the place of Mr York. Class changes include the dropping of the Honors Math course. Seniors wanting a fourth year of math can now take only Advanced Math

Most math courses are taught as a part of the Team program for 9th and 10th graders College prep math courses are given, and for those wanting more vocational training, the department has courses for them, too. A word to the wise senior: Know the Quadratic formula if you intend to graduate!

1. Mr. Merrin prepares for class. 2. Lance Thompson takes a test. 3. Stand by for sarcasm. 4. Mr. Schlosser teaches his Geometry class how to connect two points with a line. 5. Seniors take time out for mental relaxation

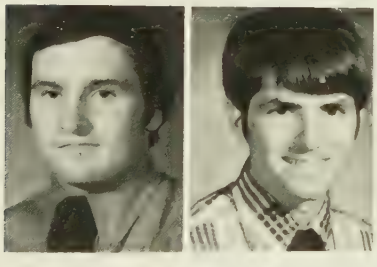
Safety Emphasized

Driver's Education hopes to build every new driver's skills in safety behind the wheel. Both teachers take each semester slowly to impress upon their students how bad driving habits can be avoided. The classes consist of tests, fill-in booklets and acutal driving time. It is hoped that every student who passes Dr. Ed. will be a good one.



David Gray — Driver's Ed., Baseball Coach, Key Club Adv

Whit Parks — Driver's Ed., Assistant Football Coach

1. Senior Sue Perkins gabs to her friend Lori Hawkins. 2 Driver's Ed. teacher, Whit Parks, talks to Junior Becky Ransom. 3. A student enjoys his lunch in the cafeteria. 4 Senior Dave Proper looks disgusted with the camera man

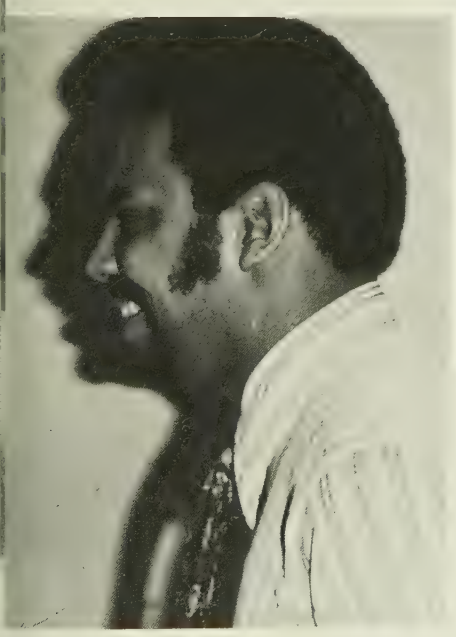
Kay N. Hoppe — Special Education, Freshman Adv.

Duane Johnson — 11-12 EMR, Track Coach.

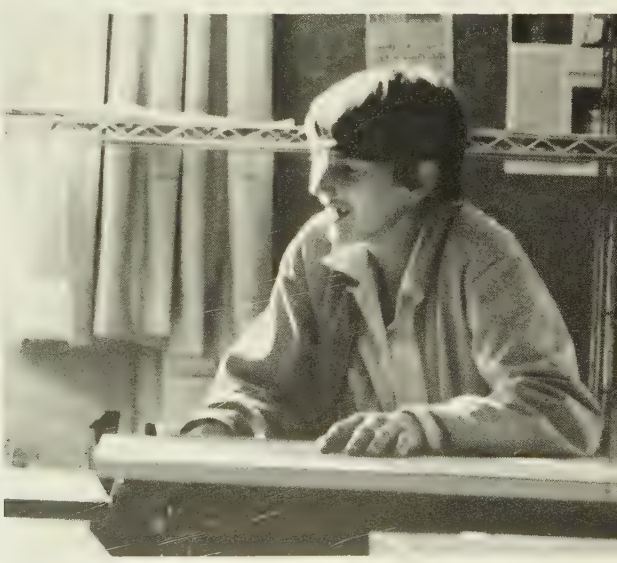
Special Area Makes New Addition

This year the Special Education Department was glad to find a new addition to the classroom. Mr. Duane Johnson has taken over some of the duties along with Mrs. Kay Hoppe. Both instructors hope to bring about a new sense of individuality.

One special project of the classes was to wish Mrs. Ford a speedy recovery. They received a thank you from the first lady for their concern.



1. Fr. Mike Ferguson is deep in thought among the crowd. 2. Teacher Duane Johnson looks pleased about school. 3. Soph. Raymond Wells seems to be interested in art class. 4. Mr. Johnson and Mr. Cunningham spend a "quiet" moment on cafeteria duty.



1. Sr. Karen Tier laughs at her mistakes as Mrs. Warrick helps her correct them. 2. Students gather to watch a quick-fingered friend. 3. Sr. Amy Mertz pauses before she leaves class to rest. 4. Mrs. Warrick keeps an eye on her students. 5. Mrs. Fithian assists a business student with her work. 6. Business teacher Noah Hinton spends his spare time coaching Powderpuff Football

Business Careers Emphasized

The Business Department this year emphasized business careers by sponsoring a Business Office Education month. This called attention to the fact that jobs are available in the business field.

Courses are keyed to both the college bound student and the career oriented student. Skills are taught and then put into action by simulating actual office situations.

Physical Education Classes Produce Mind and Body Building Time

Physical Education classes involve both team and individual sports. Boys participate in the President's Council on Physical Fitness test while the girls tediously work out on circuit training. Both classes aim to develop a sound mind in a sound body through sports such as softball, volleyball, basketball, gymnastics, and track and field. All in all the Phys. Ed. classes provide a fun time and good exercise for all.

Involvement Is Goal for Social Studies Department

The Social Studies department this year was under the direction of chairman, Mr. Gary Kost.

More involvement in the community was a goal for the department. In Senior Social Studies classes, speakers were brought in and a variety of projects were worked on to help students view the world situation.

A new change was made in the department this year when the American History course was divided into three different sections.

Paul Pfeiffer — American History, Jr. Class Adv.

Martin Peterson — Sr. Soc., Team 9 Social Involvement.

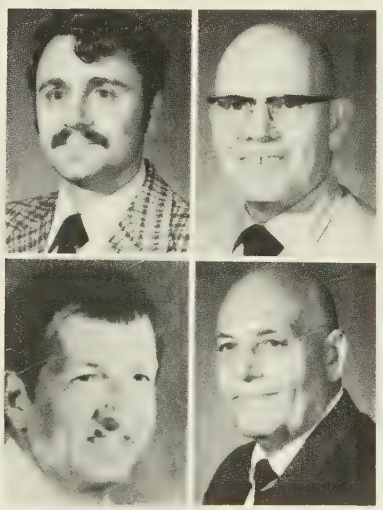
Assorted Projects Offered

This year's Industrial Arts classes offer many imaginative ways of doing handiwork. Besides working in Shop, which is working with wood and metal, the students work with leather, glass, and linoleum in Crafts. The third phase consists of Mechanical Drawing. The Industrial Arts department offers a break from the usual student courses.



George Hausser — Industrial Arts.

Donald Morrison — Industrial Arts, Engineering Drawing, Dept. Head.

Jack Scott — Industrial Arts.

Chester Zimmerman — Vocational Agriculture, Advisor of F.F.A.

Band Records Fine Year

Mount Vernon High School has had the pleasure of listening to one of the finest sounding music departments around the state.

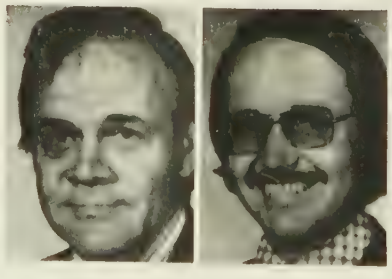
The music department is composed of many separate divisions; which include Concert Band, Marching Band, Pep Band and Orchestra.

All the students worked together in creating various enjoyable sounds; which were brought into many of the school's activities.

Pep Band livened up the basketball games, while Concert Band played mainly for the school's enjoyment.

Marching Band was able to bring many different shows and sounds for our listening pleasure

Orchestra provided the school's assemblies with fine arrangements.



Bob Bechtel — Instrumental Music, Football and Concert Band Director, Mello Jackets Dance Band Director, Department Head

As photographers our main goal is to record what life is really like at Mount Vernon Senior High. It can be a rather trying job at times, but we enjoy being photographers as it is one way to express our feelings towards the school and the people in it. We have done our best to gather the events that you may look back on in the years to come. Since this is our last year on the FORUM we felt we should pass on a word of thanks to the students and faculty of Mount Vernon Senior High for the cooperation they have given us. We wish the best of luck to the graduating class of 1975 and to future graduates of Mount Vernon Senior High School.

Editors' Column

As we put the final touches on the 1975 Forum, we the co-editors can look back on many good times, lacking of course, in many tedious jobs.

We hope, that as you look through this book, you will find it as enjoyable as those of us who worked to put these pages together.

We would like to take this opportunity to thank the following people who have helped to make this yearbook possible: Matt McCormick, representative of Taylor Publishing Company; Mount Vernon City Photographers, Bev's House of Portraits, Garverick Studios, and Lipps Studios. The staff photographers John Spadafore, Tom Trinkner, and Micheal Kahrl.

We would like to give a special thanks to our advisor, Mr. William Jenkins. Although it was his first experience working as advisor to a yearbook, he was a great asset and inspiration to all of us.

There are many more to thank; we hope you know you're included in our thoughts. Above all we would like to thank our faithful staff, without them this book could never have come into existence.

What more can we say? It's the end of another school year and the end brings completion of the 1975 Forum. To say it was all fun would be crazy, but it was more than just long hard hours of work. It taught us to treasure all of our 'Photographs and Memories.'

Sincerely,
Judi Arnholt
Becky Bowers

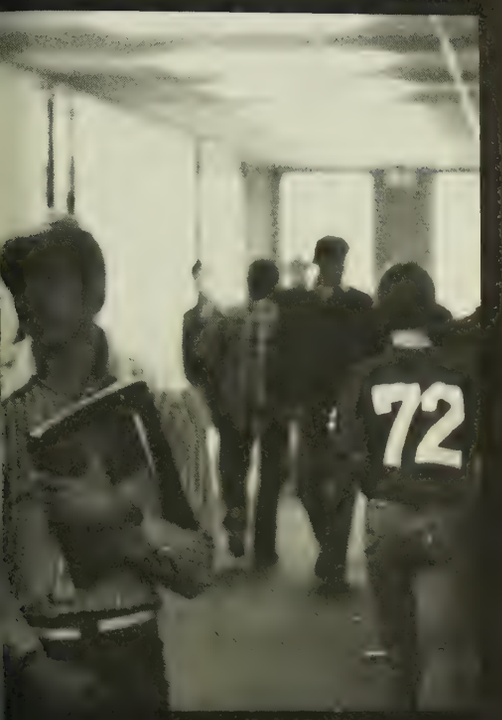
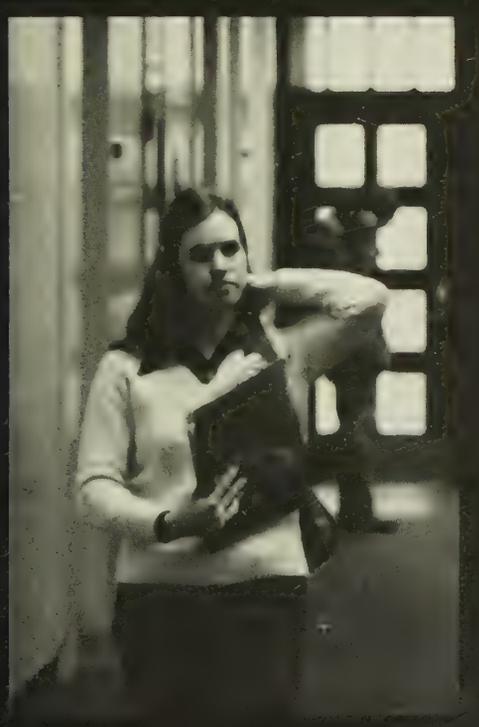
Taking a test requires concentration. 5. Linda Smith, Senior, dreams. 6. Senior Brenda Peairs looks disgusted.

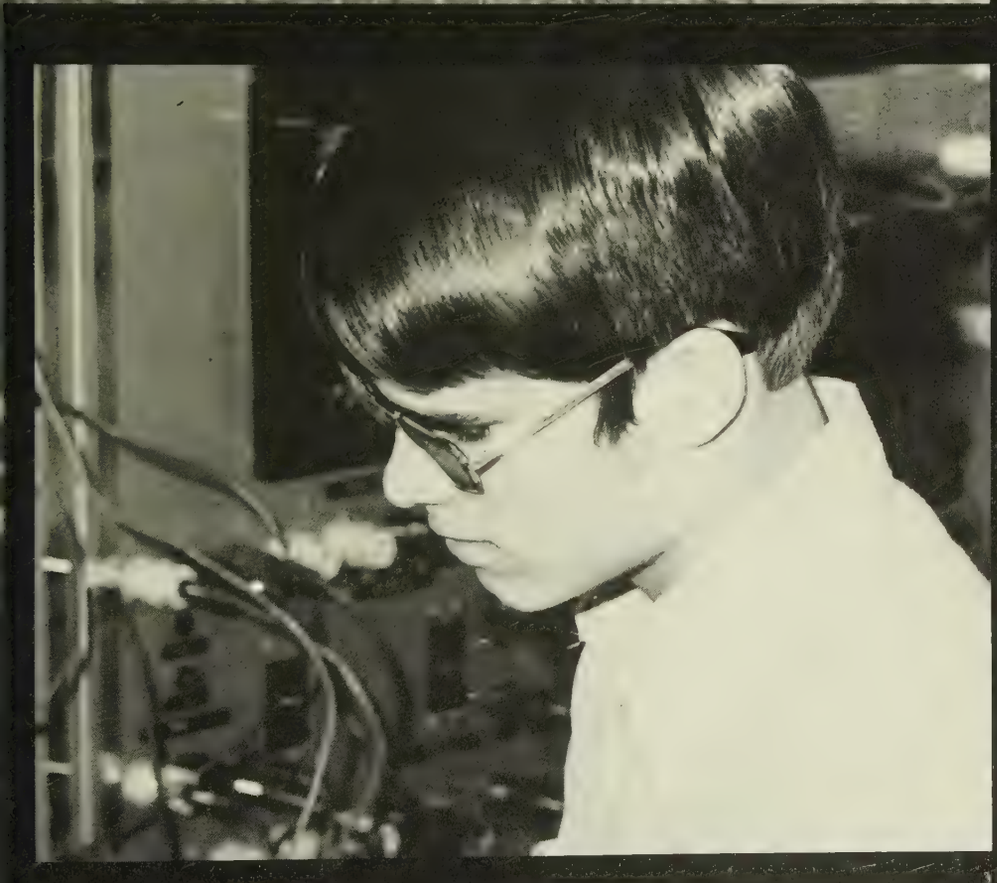




Back to a Happier Day When I Called You Mine

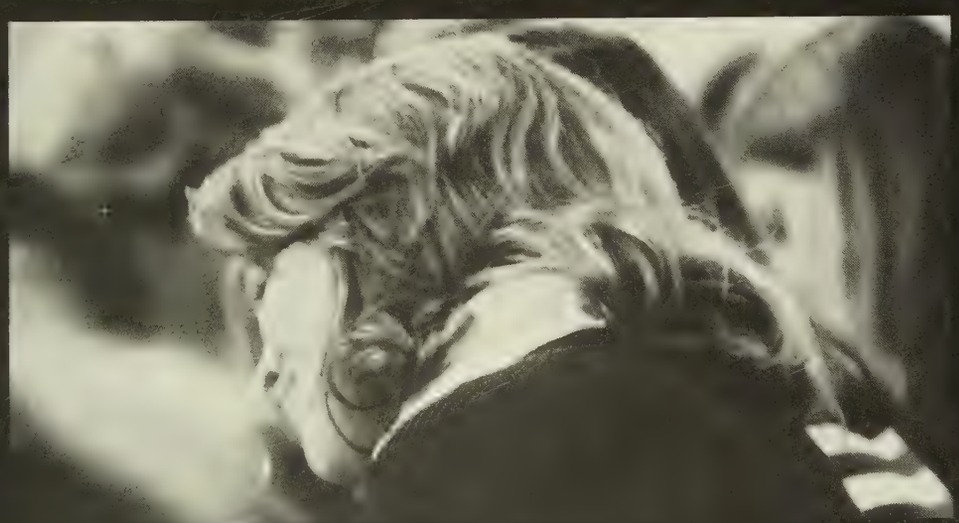
But We Sure Had a Good Time
When We Started Way Back
When

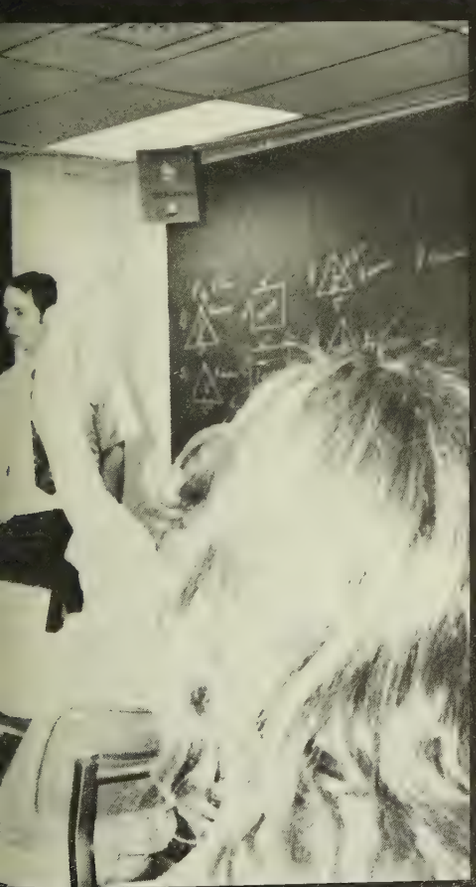
1. A scene from a WINDOW!! in the school. 2. Cathy Gilliand, Sophomore, watches as the world goes by. 3. Senior Mark Boucher works in class at the vocational school. 4. John Keck studies up for his 'Soc.' test. 5. Senior Melanie MacMaster ponders over a difficult problem.



1. Senior Brady Clements laughs at the thought of four topic reports. 2. Jerry Campbell, Senior, works hard on his assignment. 3. Cindy Dye, Senior, works on her all important theme. 4. Mr. Bill Achberger has an enthusiastic class. 5. Freshmen have a party to celebrate Thanksgiving.

Morning Walks and Bedroom Talks
Oh, How I Loved You Then





Summer Skys and Lullabies
Nights We Couldn't Say Good-bye

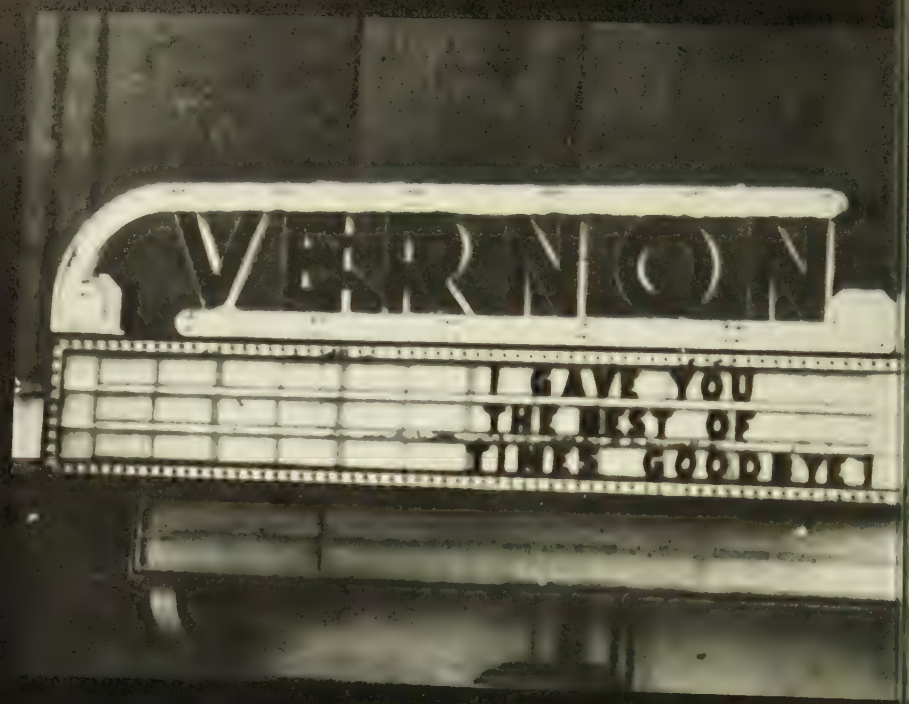
And of All of the Things That We Knew
Not a Dream Survived



Photographs and Memories
All the Love You Gave to Me
Somehow It Just Can't Be True
That's All I've Left of You
